

SELF-LIMIT ACCESS PROGRAM

MGM Resorts International is committed to promoting public awareness and education and to providing information on available resources to those patrons who believe they may have a gambling problem. MGM Resorts International maintains a program in compliance with Nevada Gaming Regulation 5.170 that allows our patrons to voluntarily self-limit themselves from certain activities and privileges, which are provided as a service and convenience to our patrons by completing this form. This self-limitation will be effective within 14 days of this request being received by MGM Resorts International. This form is not applicable to any type of Internet Gaming.

PATRON'S REQUEST TO SELF-LIMIT ACCESS

1. I, the undersigned patron, hereby request to self-limit my access to casino and casino related privileges, including receiving complimentary. I agree that as a result of being self-limited I no longer will be permitted to have check cashing privileges, marker privileges, front money deposit privileges, cash advances processed at the casino and/or poker cages, use of safety deposit boxes at the casino and/or poker cages, as well as not being permitted to receive (i) gaming related direct mail marketing; (ii) gaming related telemarketing; (iii) gaming related promotional mail; and (iv) gaming and gaming related customer recognition programs at any of the following MGM Resorts International properties:

Maryland: MGM-National Harbor

Massachusetts: MGM-Springfield

Michigan: MGM Grand Detroit

Mississippi: Beau Rivage-Biloxi, Gold Strike Casino-Tunica

New Jersey: Borgata-Atlantic City

Nevada: ARIA, Bellagio, Circus Circus-Las Vegas, Excalibur, Luxor, Mandalay Bay, MGM Grand-Las Vegas, The Mirage, Monte Carlo, New York New York, and Slots-A-Fun and any future casinos operated by MGM Resorts International in the United States.

I understand that the states of Maryland, Massachusetts Michigan, Mississippi, and New Jersey have (and future states in which MGM Resorts may operate a casino in the future may have) their own laws governing self-limit, self-exclusion or disassociated patrons. Those states' laws require that persons wishing to avail themselves of the protection afforded under those laws to complete their state's forms. However, by agreeing to be self-limited in Nevada, you agree that MGM Resorts International will limit the casino and gaming related privileges available to you at its properties in Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Mississippi and New Jersey and any property which MGM Resorts International may operate in the future in the United States.

2. I understand and agree that no further points, rewards, tier credits or any other benefits may be earned from any customer recognition programs in which I have participated. I further understand and agree that by requesting to be self-limited any points, rewards, tier credits or any other benefits I previously have earned from any MGM Resorts International customer recognition programs will be forfeited, included but not limited to any Express Comps or tier credits. I also understand and agree that MGM Resorts International shall continue to honor my request to self-limit my access to the gaming and gaming related privileges described above unless and until I request to rescind the voluntary self-limitation. I understand and agree that my request to rescind must be in a notarized writing; in a form approved by MGM Resorts International and that I shall not be allowed to make such a reinstatement request earlier than one year after the date I became self-limited. Notwithstanding any rescission, the states of Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Mississippi, and New Jersey may have different rules regarding reinstatement which MGM Resorts International will honor at all of its properties, including any property which MGM Resorts International may operate in the future.

3. I understand that upon being self-limited, I will be ineligible to enroll in the M life Rewards Program or the Credit Cards Rewards Program (M life Mastercard). If I am already enrolled in the M life Rewards Program or the Credit Card Rewards Program, my benefits cease, all accrued benefits are forfeited as specified in Paragraph 2, above and I am not longer able to participate in such programs.

4. I have been advised and agree that if I receive check cashing/marker privileges or gaming related (i) direct mail marketing, or (ii) telemarketing information, or (iii) promotional materials after the effective date of self-limitation, I will contact the Self Limit Compliance Officer at self-limit@mgmresorts.com within ten (10) days of receipt of such information or materials. If I have questions concerning this Policy, I will contact the Self Limit Compliance Officer at self-limit@mgmresorts.com. I acknowledge that for my request of self-limitation to be truly effective, I must exercise self-restraint and I should not ask any MGM Resorts International employee to provide me with any of the services or privileges, which are the subject of this request. I agree this self-limitation request does not release me from any debts incurred prior to, or after, the effective date of this self-limitation request. I hereby release and hold MGM Resorts International, its subsidiaries and affiliates, harmless from any claim by me or any third party arising from my presence, acts or omissions upon the premises of any MGM Resorts International properties which occur after the effective date of self-limitation. I further agree that this self-limitation request does not obligate MGM Resorts International properties to return any funds wagered by me prior to, or after, the effective date of this self-limitation request.
